CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING WINE

Champagne has launched thousands of ships, attended countless parties and shared untold special moments between two people. It is the ultimate celebratory drink created and drunk by true romantics. What better place than the Maldives to sit back and enjoy a glass of the only wine that has captured the stars.

What did Dom Perignon say to fellow monks after he invented champagne? ... Come quickly, I am tasting the stars.”

ROSÉ WINE

A rosé (From French: "Rosé", Pinkish) Wine has some of the color typical of a red wine, but only enough to turn it pink. The pink color can range from a pale orange to a vivid near-purple, depending on the grapes and wine making techniques. These wines are wonderful when lightly chilled and work well with Mediterranean cuisine and richer seafood dishes

PINOT NOIR

The wine world's ultimate Holy Grail. Pinot Noir is the thin-skinned classic grape variety of red Burgundy with a notoriously temperamental reputation. Pinot Noir with its capable of producing divinely scented and wonderfully heady perfumes, with thrillingly pure, sweet, red berry flavours of raspberry, longanberry, mulberry, cherry and strawberry nuances. Despite its fickle nature, it is a tribute to its desirability among consumers of producing that inspires growers and producers all over Europe and the New World to excel with this variety.

Aroma Tips: Violet, Cherry, Truffle, Mulberry & Spice

Flavour & Texture Tips: silky, Medium-Body, soft & Fruitiness

Food Tips: Duck, Game Birds, Pork & Salmon

MERLOT & BLEND

For long considered the junior partner in the great Bordeaux duo of grape varieties, Merlot has achieved growing popularity in the last decade of the 20th century thanks to the cult worship of certain Merlot-based Pomerols and Saint-Emilions in Bordeaux as well as growing taste for its lusciously plummy and flavoursome early-drinking delights in countries such as Chile and California. With its soft texture, deliciously plummy fruit flavour and mellow tannins, Merlot is more approachable than Cabernet sauvignon at a young age.

Aroma Tips: Blackcurrant, Chocolate, Plummy & Blueberry

Flavour & Texture Tips: Medium to Full Body, Velvety, Lush & smooth

Food Tips: Roasted Lamb, Cassoulet, Squab, Confit of Goose or Duck

SANGIOVESE & BLENDS

Sangiovese meaning "blood of Jupiter", is the Chianti grape par excellence, and responsible in Tuscany too, for Brunello di Montalcino and Vino Nobile di Montepulciano. It is also known as Brunello, Morellino and Prugnolo Gentile. A fussy grape to grow, it can produce lively, young reds with juicy, cherry flavours, as well as more concentrated, long-live, oak-matured reds with superb, savoury, herb and spice flavours of great finesse.

Aroma Tips: Cherry, Herb, Plum & Gamey

Flavour & Texture Tips: Medium to Full Body, Spice, Juicy & Savoury

Food Tips: Pasta with Tomato Sauce base, Game Birds & Lamb

CABERNET SAUVIGNON & BLENDS

For the 1855 Exposition Universelle de Paris, Emperor Napoleon III requested a classification system for France's best Bordeaux wines which were to be on display for visitors from around the world. Brokers from the wine industry ranked the wines according to a château's reputation and trading price, which at that time was directly related to quality. The result was the Bordeaux Wine Official Classification of 1855
